PROMOTE PEOPLE'S CONTROL AND SPY SYSTEMS

JOURNALISTS FREE TO EXPOSE CORRUPTION -- Dziennik Zachodni, No 83, 24 Mar 50

Jan Nowak, a miner at the Orzel Bialy mine, has served as local correspondent of Trybuna Robotnicza for the past year. When he reported that the manager of the Peasants' Self-Help Cooperatives at Dabrowka Wielka was engaged in illicit trade in lumber and textiles, he was sued for libel. The court dismissed the case on the grounds that the reports were true, and it is the duty of newspaper correspondents to report such irregularities.

COMMITTEES TO CONTROL REGISTRATION -- Zycie Warszawy, No 87, 28 Mar 50

Block committees will now have charge of residence registration. In many cases present registration books are not in order and persons listed in them are no longer residents at a given place. The block committees' methods of registration control will be discussed at a plenary meeting of the Housing Offices, representatives of block committees, and those handling registrations.

TO ATTEND USSR SCHOOL -- Ostatnie Wiadomosci, No 24, 26 Feb 50

One hundred and fifty members of the UB (Security Office) have been sent to a special "Border Patrol" school in Moscow. Several policemen also have been sent to a special school for training shepherd dogs located in Klyazma near Moscow.

PEOPLE'S CORRESPONDENTS TO ACT AS INFORMERS -- Bulletin de l'Association d'Etudes et d'Informations Politiques Internationales, No 25, 1 - 15 May 50

A Congress of People's Correspondents was held on 30 March 1950, at which the duties of the 10,000 members were outlined. These correspondents are to act as "stool pigeons," to unmask the enemies of the working classes, and to help eliminate present difficulties in the successful operation of cooperatives.

This is one method adopted by the various Communist Parties in order to increase, under numerous pretexts, the number of police auxiliaries.
